Trois. I only bother at all myself because some of them manage to overcome impotence sufficiently to harm others.

And there's occasional entertainment via spectacular lameness.

Some are computer-savvy, nonebut one is literate past 5th grade. It's why junior-college, tenured-but-incompetent tranny-sue is the leader.

I had better language ability before middle-school than the various reprobates will ever have.

[Thirder! Apparently a pathetic little tranny and his fanbois - probably mostly fakes posted by himself. More - or less - pathetic if they're real?
 You decide.]

I don't know about you, old boy, but I'm counting at least five. And there are a few others lurking.

It cannot be good for the toilet-lickers, even when they have ten or fifteen others with heads in the toilet.

It won't be a Good Day for them, fer sure, if the population of Humans in AUK increases, even a little!

[Stay tuned. I'm filing more federal suits in the course of my regular business these days, and with the EFC and PACER procedures, the whole thing is becoming more trivial for me.]

The sole problem is the $350 door-fee. If it was like $15, I would have sprayed out 20 of them by now.

[Anyone legitimately victimized by a hider will get free lawyer service if they want to make the filing fees and they can pin a true name on the perp. Drop me a line for more info.]

I figure if I tag just one or two of the rat-fucks - publicly, of course - the rest will disappear in a half-hour.
